Dominiqua Lint "Kayla"

Biography

Dominiqua Lint, who stars as Kayla in the film Reunion, is the eldest of three girls, born and raised in Medford, Massachusetts. Moving to study at the University of Central Florida, Dominiqua became a cheerleader, basketball player and honor student, with an activities schedule that included everything from yearbook to dancing. Dominiqua also completed several commercials, shorts and independent films, before graduating with a Bachelor's in Biology, with a minor in Environmental Science.

Moving to California to pursue acting, Dominiqua right away landed a small part in the year's Oscar winning documentary The Children's March airing on HBO. This has been followed by several supporting roles on indie-features such as Boppin at the Glue Factory and Miles From Home starring Meagan Good. In addition, Dominiqua stars as the lead in the next Silver Moon production.

A true up and coming actress, Dominiqua starred in Reunion as Kayla, the sensible, intelligent and outspoken college student who is remarkably strong and well-grounded despite being raised by a hateful mother.
